We ask that you use common sense when choosing Content to post and send to Carimmat, as you take full responsibility for it. If you repeatedly violate these rules, we may have to ban you from Carimmat, deactivate your account or prevent you from accessing Carimmat in the future. We may remove Content that you have posted on Carimmat if we determine that it violates our Terms, or if we are required to do so by law.

- 1.1 Are there any rules about personal data such as my email address? You are not permitted to disclose any personal or banking information (such as names, mailing addresses, phone numbers, e-mail addresses, URLs, debit/credit card or other banking information, and place of employment) on your profile page ("Profile"), whether it is your own or that of a third party. If you choose to disclose your personal information to other users, whether by e-mail or otherwise, you do so at your own risk. We encourage you to exercise the same caution you would in other circumstances when disclosing information about yourself to others online. We encourage you to review our Safety Tips.

1.2 Data Processor - Data Recipients

The collected data are treated by : The company CARIMMAT SAS, parent company of the Carimmat application with a capital of 1 000,00 € registered under the number 900 516 733 at the RCS of GRASSE, whose head office is located at 47 DOM DES ROUMEGUIERES 06460 SAINT-VALLIER-DE-THIEY and represented by its President, Tristan BERGUER. Only certain employees of the customer services and support and authorized persons in charge of Carimmat treat the personal data of the Members for the purposes described in article 1.2 hereafter. These employees and authorized persons only have access to the data that they need for their job. Carimmat may also contract with authenticated and reliable subcontractors who may access, host and/or process certain personal data of Members on behalf of Carimmat, according to Carimmat's instructions, in compliance with the Privacy Policy and who guarantee the security and confidentiality of Members' personal data. These subcontractors allow Carimmat to establish statistics on the volumes of frequentation and/or the use of the Application and/or to ensure the good functioning of the Application. The personal data of a Member identified as "accessible to the public of Carimmat" in article 1.3 hereafter which appear on its profile are accessible only to the other Members who answer compatible research criteria.

All the information sent from the Carimmat application are transmitted by api to the internal servers of Carimmat on the following url :

- <https://api-dev.carimmat.com/>
- <https://api.carimmat.com/>

1.3 Purposes of the Data Processing Operated by Carimmat

The data collected by Carimmat are necessary for the good functioning and the improvement of the Services of the Application which are proposed to the Members.

The data collected is also used to perform statistical studies and marketing analyses related to the use of the Application and Services by Members. Carimmat may also access, store and share Members' personal data with authorized third parties in response to a lawful request (such as a search warrant, court order or other) or to comply with legal, regulatory, judicial or administrative requirements; to detect or prevent fraudulent activities or breaches of security of the Services; and to comply with the law.

1.4 Fair Collection of Personal Data - Type of Data

Identity Data: The registration form is mandatory to access the Services and is collected by Carimmat from Facebook to minimize formality, via Facebook Connect, via Twitter, via Google or via an email address. The registration requires the Member to communicate some of his personal data:

- Photos: At a minimum, the public Facebook profile photo (if the person connects via Facebook or via another social network. The Member will then have the possibility to remove or modify this photo. In the interest of transparency, the photos published must represent the Member and must not mislead other Members about his or her appearance. These photos must not represent a celebrity, nor include the portrait of a minor, nor embody a racist, shocking, illegal or sexual message, nor contain personal information. They are published in the Application under the sole responsibility of the Member. By becoming a Member, the Member accepts the publication of his/her photos in the Application.

- date of birth (only the age deducted from the date of birth is accessible on Carimmat via Facebook)

- his gender (accessible to the public of Carimmat)

- its first name (accessible to the public of Carimmat)

- his e-mail address (inaccessible to the public of Carimmat). The Member agrees to verify that the e-mail address retrieved via Facebook Connect is valid and/or to modify it in order to facilitate communication with Carimmat.

Other personal information that Member may enter in his or her Account is optional and provided at Member's sole discretion and responsibility.

Location data (geolocation): The main interest and purpose of the Application is to allow Members to find others around them. Authorization is requested from the Member to collect and process data relating to his or her geolocation in order to allow Carimmat to identify the distances between each Member in order to facilitate physical meetings with other Members who have agreed to be geolocated. Geolocation also allows Carimmat to list profiles that match the distance search criteria. Carimmat does not reconstruct the movements and/or itineraries of its Members. At no time is a Member's exact location or route visible to other Members.

The Member may revoke his consent at any time and deactivate the geolocation option on his smartphone. In this case, the profile discovery service will not be functional. Transaction Data: Carimmat does not collect or process any banking data. The Apple App Store and the Play Store have chosen not to communicate certain data to mobile applications, including transaction data. These data are exclusively collected and treated by these platforms, without the will of Carimmat being able to modify this mode of payment. Data related to the communications exchanged: Messages are sent and stored on Carimmat's servers exclusively to provide the Service of transmission of exchanges between Members who have had a smoothie. Messages and voicemails are strictly private and are only binding on the Members involved. Carimmat's authorized officials have no right of review of these conversations, except at the request of a court and/or in accordance with applicable laws or regulations and/or as part of any evidence provided to Carimmat by a Member in connection with a report. In addition, strictly private Messages will not be accessible to other Members not involved in the exchange, nor to any third party.

Data related to search preferences: By default, the Application is set to search for Members of different genders (male -> female - female -> male) and an age range of +2 / -2 relative to the age of the member registered on Facebook. The Member may modify these parameters and enter in the Application the age range and gender of the persons sought (male and/or female) in order to be put in contact exclusively with the profiles that meet his/her criteria. The Member will then only see Members who meet his or her search preferences.

Mobile Data: When the Member uses the Application, Carimmat collects server logs that may include information such as IP addresses, operating system or application crashes. Carimmat is not able to access the browsing history of its Members.

1.5 Additional Details About the Data Collected

The personal data that the Member has published in the Application are made strictly invisible by Carimmat to non-registered Internet users and third parties. All the information sent from the Carimmat application is transmitted by api to the internal servers of Carimmat on the following url

- <https://api-dev.carimmat.com/>

- <https://api.carimmat.com/>

Carimmat cannot be held responsible for the data published on Carimmat and disclosed by a Member.

The profile of the Member which does not correspond to the research criteria of other Members that it could cross will not appear on the news feed of these Members

1.6 Member Warning About Sensitive Data

Certain data are legally qualified as "sensitive" under Article 8 of Law No. 78-17 of January 6, 1978 on Information Technology and Civil Liberties.

When registering on the Application, the Member may choose to communicate certain sensitive data concerning him or her, such as, for example, ethnic origin, sexual orientation or political opinions.

Carimmat does not encourage Member to disclose sensitive information to other Members or to Carimmat via the Application. If, however, the Member wishes to communicate such data on his or her profile, such communication constitutes the Member's express consent to the collection and processing of such data by Carimmat.

1.7 Member Rights Notice

In accordance with the law n° 78-17 of January 6, 1978, known as Data-processing Law and Freedoms, each Member has a right of access, of correction and opposition and of suppression on its personal data. Concerned about the concerns of its Members, Carimmat is committed to respecting the protection of the personal data and to treat these requests as soon as possible. The Member can exercise his rights, subject to proving his identity, by sending a letter or an email to the address mentioned in article 17 of the present GCU.

- The right of access authorizes the Member to question Carimmat in order to obtain the communication of the data relating to it in an accessible form on the basis of article 39 of the Data-processing Law and Freedoms.
- The right of correction confers to the Member the right to require of Carimmat that are rectified, supplemented, updated or erased the data in personal matter concerning it which are inaccurate, incomplete, equivocal, out-of-date or whose use, the communication or the conservation is prohibited on the basis of article 40 of the Data-processing Law and Freedoms;
- The right of opposition confers to the Member the right to oppose without expenses and in a discretionary way, that its data are used by Carimmat at ends of canvassing, in particular commercial, on the basis of article 38 of the Data-processing Law and Freedoms.
- The right of deletion gives the Member the right to demand the deletion of the data communicated to Carimmat, without charge and in a discretionary manner, within the limits of the legal obligations incumbent on Carimmat in its capacity as host.

These rights can only be exercised to the extent that Carimmat is able to do so through the use of Facebook Connect. Some of the data has been communicated to Carimmat via Facebook Connect and therefore cannot be corrected without the cooperation of Facebook. The Member can also correct most of his or her data on the Application itself.

1.8 No Transfer of Your Personal Data

Personal data, visible or not to other Members, are not transferred by Carimmat to third parties.

1.9 Data Retention

Carimmat keeps the Member's data for as long as necessary for the use of the Member's Account.

In addition, it should be noted that Carimmat, in accordance with its status as a hosting company, is required by law to retain certain personal data of Members for a period of one year on the basis of Article 6, II of the Law for Confidence in the Digital Economy of June 21, 2004.

With regard to the decree of February 25, 2011 relating to the conservation and the communication of the data, the time of conservation imposed to Carimmat runs as from the creation of the contents for the data mentioned in 1° and 2° of the article 6, II of the Law for the Confidence in the Digital Economy, that is to say:

- The identifier of the connection at the origin of the communication;
- The identifier assigned by the information system to the content;
- The types of protocols used;
- The nature of the operation;
- The dates and times of the operation;
- The identifier used by the author of the operation when he/she has provided it.

The retention period imposed on Carimmat runs from the termination of the Account or the deletion of the profile for the data mentioned in 3° of the same article, namely

- The first names
- The pseudonyms used
- The email addresses or the associated Account addresses
- The password as well as the data allowing to check it or to modify it, in their last updated version

Carimmat is committed to providing its best efforts and all the means in its possession to guarantee the optimal security of the data kept. However, it is the Member's responsibility to take appropriate measures to protect his/her data.

Carimmat refuses to collect the data of minors. In the event that a Member lies about his or her date of birth, and especially in the event of fraudulent attestation of his or her majority, the parents of the minor child are invited to notify Carimmat by sending an e-mail to the address indicated in article 17, in order to request the deletion of the data. Carimmat undertakes to delete all personal data concerning the minor child as soon as possible.

1.10 Data Transfer Outside the EU

At the time of registration, the Member expressly consents that his or her data may be transmitted to subcontractors of Carimmat located outside the European Union, for the purpose of carrying out statistical studies and, if necessary, hosting the data processed by the Application.

Carimmat guarantees that these transfers are carried out under conditions that ensure the confidentiality and security of the data and an adequate level of protection in accordance with the provisions of articles 68 and 69 of the French Data Protection Act.
